Item 2 Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our firm offers brokerage services to retail investors including buying and selling securities.

Our firm provides non-discretionary or limited discretionary authority for the following services. If you decide to invest on a non-discretionary basis, we are not permitted to buy or sell investments in your account without your prior authorization. You make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. On a limited basis, we provide brokerage services on a discretionary basis. If you choose to invest on a discretionary basis, our firm will buy and sell investments in your accounts in accordance with your stated investment guidelines without requiring your pre-approval. We will have discretion until you notify us in writing.

- Retirement planning
- Buying and selling securities
- Estate planning
- Investment recommendations
- Personal investment strategies

If you open a brokerage account with our firm, we will discuss your current financial situation, existing resources, goals and risk tolerance. Based on your needs, we will recommend a portfolio of investments to meet your investment objectives. The firm will not monitor your brokerage account.

If this form is not accompanied by a Form CRS for an Investment Adviser, your investment professional is unable to offer advisory services. This creates a material limitation as to the types of accounts that your investment professional can offer.

There is no minimum account size or initial investment amount. For additional information please email clientservices@newenglandpension.com or call us at 401-274-5000 for our Fee Schedule and our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure.

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:
– Given my financial situation, should I choose a brokerage service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
– What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 Fees, Costs, Conflicts and Standard of Conflict

What fees will I pay?

Our fees can be assessed at time of transaction, quarterly and annually and are disclosed in our Fee Schedule. Some fees create a conflict of interest described below.

- If our firm charges you transaction fees, the firm has an incentive to encourage you to trade more frequently.
- If our firm charges you a commission, our representatives may offer products to you that cost more and therefore you will be charged more.

There are other fees and costs related to our brokerage services in addition to the principal fees and costs that you will pay directly or indirectly. Examples of the most common fees and costs are custodian fees, maintenance fees, transaction fees and commissions, insurance fees and mutual fund fees.

Additional Information:
You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

As the firm does not maintain a website, for more detailed information about our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure and Fee Schedule, please contact our office for details of the specific transactions via telephone at 401-274-5000 or via email at clientservices@newenglandpension.com.

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:
– Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we provide you with a recommendation, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Our firm receives revenue from other parties and has a financial incentive to offer products where the firm benefits. This arrangement will impact the value of your investment over time.
- Our firm engages in principal trading which can lead to price manipulation or the sale of unwanted securities to you.
- If you invest in mutual funds or variable insurance products, our firm has an incentive to encourage you to invest in positions that may be costly, dependent on amount purchased and time horizon.

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:
– How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Additional information:
For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure and Fee Schedule found at www.newenglandpension.com.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are compensated based on revenue our firm earns when they manage accounts, invest for their clients and make certain recommendations.
