What fees will I pay?

Conversation Starter –

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

Fees will range from a flat fee or to a fee that is tied to the account transaction size, usually expressed in dollars. Transaction-based fees may be negotiated and size may matter and may therefore result to investor incentive.

Most common fees and costs are associated with transaction fees, management fees and commissions.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For additional information, please contact your Registered Representative or call 405.286.9755, to request for up-to-date information.

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we provide you with a recommendation as your broker-dealer, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations we provide you.

Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- We benefit from our recommendations to you.
- Your registered representative may purchase the same products for their own or families' personal accounts; has a financial incentive to recommend investment products or offerings that result in greater compensation to them; or receive compensation for successful referrals and therefore have a financial incentive to make those referrals.

Should you deem that a conflict of interest arises or is imminent—whether that be due to the Firm's policies and procedures or an action by a Registered Representative, please let the Firm know about it immediately.
