About BrokerCheck®

BrokerCheck offers information on all current, and many former, registered securities brokers, and all current and former registered securities firms. FINRA strongly encourages investors to use BrokerCheck to check the background of securities brokers and brokerage firms before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

- What is included in a BrokerCheck report?

- BrokerCheck reports for individual brokers include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards. BrokerCheck reports for brokerage firms include information on a firm's profile, history, and operations, as well as many of the same disclosure events mentioned above.
- Please note that the information contained in a BrokerCheck report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the broker or brokerage firm, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

- Where did this information come from?

- The information contained in BrokerCheck comes from FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD® and is a combination of:
 - o information FINRA and/or the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) require brokers and brokerage firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
 - o information that regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against firms or brokers.

- How current is this information?

- Generally, active brokerage firms and brokers are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in CRD within 30 days. Under most circumstances, information reported by brokerage firms, brokers and regulators is available in BrokerCheck the next business day.

- What if I want to check the background of an investment adviser firm or investment adviser representative?

- To check the background of an investment adviser firm or representative, you can search for the firm or individual in BrokerCheck. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in the SEC's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure (IAPD) website at <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov>. In the alternative, you may search the IAPD website directly or contact your state securities regulator at <http://www.finra.org/Investors/ToolsCalculators/BrokerCheck/P455414>.

- Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

- FINRA recommends that you learn as much as possible about an investment professional before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research brokers and investment adviser representatives doing business in your state.

Thank you for using FINRA BrokerCheck.

Using this site/information means that you accept the FINRA BrokerCheck Terms and Conditions. A complete list of Terms and Conditions can be found at brokercheck.finra.org

Other Business Activities

This section includes information, if any, as provided by the broker regarding other business activities the broker is currently engaged in either as a proprietor, partner, officer, director, employee, trustee, agent or otherwise. This section does not include non-investment related activity that is exclusively charitable, civic, religious or fraternal and is recognized as tax exempt.

Robert Dignan is the sole owner of Next Chapter Financial Planning, LLC, a Wisconsin corporation. Because Mr. Dignan is an independent Investment Advisor Representative of Highland Investment Management, LLC, the primary purpose of Next Chapter Financial Planning, LLC is to serve as the formal entity that coordinates all of Mr. Dignan's independent business operations for his professional endeavors and insurance activities. As such, Next Chapter Financial Planning, LLC does not provide a substantial source of income and does not involve a substantial amount of time. Next Chapter Financial Planning, LLC is not a registered investment advisor.

Robert Dignan is insurance licensed in the State of Wisconsin. As an insurance agent he is licensed in a manner that allows him to offer various insurance products and services for which he will receive a commission. Clients are under no obligation to purchase insurance products through him. The commissions for the sale of insurance products and services do not provide a substantial source of income and do not involve a substantial amount of time.

Robert Dignan is an elected member of the School Board for the East Troy Community School District, for a term that began in April 2019, and will end in April 2022. At that time, Mr. Dignan may seek reelection, and if successful would begin a new three-year-term. This is a paid position, however the majority of the time commitment for this activity takes place outside of normal business hours.
